The Amazing Race (TAR) is a popular reality TV show. Elise Doganieri and Bertram van Munster created it in 2001 and since then it has won many awards. In the show, teams travel around the world to different places. They try to arrive first, or at least not come last and they also try to win prizes on their journey.

Every year, between 10 and 12 teams play on the show. There are two people in each team and they must know each other before they come on the game. For example, they can be husband and wife, parents and children, friends, etc. They have to travel to different countries and work together on the journey. The teams get some money at the beginning of the race and they use it to buy food, tickets, etc. They can use planes, trains, bikes or even skis to travel.

The teams explore places they've never been to before and have games or 'challenges'. These challenges have some connection to the country they are in and can be things like riding a camel, solving puzzles or eating a lot of food, for example. The teams often have to face extreme weather conditions during their journey. Many times they are outside in the rain or snow or in storms and get cold and wet. It's all part of the experience, though.

Each week, one team leaves the show, and in the end there are only four teams. The first team to get to the last city on the journey wins the game. TAR is a very hard game and the teams become really stressed, but it's an amazing experience.

1. What do teams in TAR do?
a. They do different sports.
b. They win awards and prizes.
c. They race to various places.

Havasu Falls are in the Havasu Canyon next to the Grand Canyon in the southwestern USA. There are actually three waterfalls in the area: Havasu, Mooney and Navajo. The waterfalls are in the Havasupai Indian Reservation, the home of the Havasupai people. 'Havasupai' means 'people of the blue-green waters.'

The best time to visit the falls is in spring, in the months of April and May because the weather is cool, but it is warm enough to swim. Later, in summer, it gets hot and rainy and there can be floods, too. Visitors can camp in a campsite or stay at the Havasu Lodge. But you have to book a room at the Lodge three or four months before you plan to go.

To reach the falls you start at the parking area at Hualapai Hilltop. From there you can walk, ride a horse or fly in a helicopter to Supai village, 13 km away. From Supai village it is about 4 km to Mooney Falls.

You don't have to be an experienced hiker to walk to the falls because the walk is safe, even for beginners. However, you must be very careful because there are many dangerous cliffs. There are also caves to explore on the way. It is a good idea to take water with you and to watch out for rattlesnakes, too.

Whether you walk, ride a horse or take the helicopter, the impressive waterfalls and the peaceful surroundings make this one of the most fascinating places you can visit. It is an unforgettable experience.

1. Havasu is one of the three waterfalls in the Grand Canyon. F
2. The months of July and August are not a good time to visit the falls. T

Last summer I went on a trip to Mexico. The country was beautiful and the food was fantastic. However, I will say that some of the food was too scary to eat. When we were at a small restaurant in Oaxaca, the waiter told us to try the chapulines. I didn't know what they were, but according to him they were very tasty. My brother and I were waiting for our food, and soon the waiter brought our chapulines to the table. They were grasshoppers! My brother didn't even want to look at them. I am more adventurous than he is, so I tasted them. They didn't taste bad at all, in fact they were surprisingly good. They were sour and salty at the same time. I asked the waiter how they cooked them. I never thought they would be so easy to cook. The difficult part is buying the grasshoppers where I live. They don't sell them in supermarkets. Well, I'll just have to go back to Mexico and eat my chapulines there!

People don't normally think of rats as heroes. In fact, rats have a pretty bad name as they are usually found in dirty places. Here are two stories that will hopefully change people's minds about rats.

Birgit Steich of Stuttgart, Germany and her family were asleep in their home one night when two burglars broke in. Gerd, the pet rat, who was hiding behind a bookcase jumped and landed with all four feet and sharp teeth on the face of one burglar. When Gerd was finished with the first burglar, he jumped on the other burglar's leg and bit him hard on the leg. The family woke up from all the screaming and immediately called the police. When the police arrived, they discovered that these two burglars were wanted for many other burglaries.

In Devon, England the Gumbley family was asleep in their home when Fido, an eight-month-old pet rat, smelled smoke in the middle of the night. Instead of running outside to safety, the rat went straight to nine-year-old Megan's room. He started scratching the door until she woke up and realised that the house was on fire. Megan went to her parents' bedroom and everyone managed to get out safely. Fido got a big piece of cheese for being a hero!

- The job of a Dog Food Tester is pretty much what it sounds like. You have to try different kinds of dog food to see what it tastes like. Disgusting!
- Do you know what happens to the golf balls that go in the water, when you're playing golf? There are actually Golf Ball Divers who have to go and get them out. How fun!

Drive-ins or Drive-thrus?

People in the U.S. love getting things fast, and one of the most popular ways to buy things is through a drive-thru. In fact, these days people can do almost anything in a drive-thru. You can go to a drive-thru bank or restaurant, and if you want, you can even get married in a drive-thru! In Las Vegas, there are so many drive-thru wedding chapels that it's also called the 'wedding capital of the world'. You can even have a wedding based on a theme, like Star Trek.

Earlier, in the 1950s, though, drive-ins were very popular. A drive-in can be a restaurant, where you park your car and eat in it, or a drive-in cinema, where you watch a film on a big screen from inside your car. Drive-ins became less popular in the 1970s when drive-thrus first appeared. With a drive-thru, you don't even need to stop your car! Who knows what the future of drive-thrus will be. Some day we might be able to have a drive-thru supermarket, or even a hospital!

1. Drive-thrus are popular in the US because people like to get things quickly. ☐

2. Many people in Las Vegas have weddings based on a theme. ☐

3. Drive-thrus made drive-ins less popular. ☐

4. There are even drive-thru hospitals now. ☐

Dear Lucy,
Hello! I am so glad you wrote. It was really good to hear from you. What have you been up to? I have some news... I just finished my white-water rafting class! I know, it's crazy, right? Well, Sally told me about this class, and it sounded really interesting. She said that it was the most fun she had ever had, and I completely agree!

The course wasn't very long; it lasted only three weeks. The fee isn't much either. I paid only £55. What's more, you don't have to bring anything with you; they have the equipment and everything you need there. The best part is that you don't need any experience. That was convenient for me, because I had never been on a boat before in my life! The instructors are very good, they know so much about rafting. At the end of the course, you get a certificate that says you can go rafting by yourself!

Anyway, if you want to attend the course too, let me know. If you sign up, I know you'll have a great time!

Yours,
Lilith

The only problem is that we don't know the exact dates we're going to be there. When are you going to take your days off? We'll definitely know next week and I'll let you know. Oh, and tell me if you can take your car as well because ours has a problem and I don't know if we'll be able to travel in that. But don't worry if you can't take your car, we can all go by bus.
Anyway write back and tell me if you're coming. If not, tell me what your plans are.
